

OM-530 (Supply Chain Management)

Instructor's Expectations

- Your instructor expects punctuality and discipline in this online/on-campus setting.
 - for this, attendance will be mandatory and carries marks in order to keep you motivated towards the sessions.
- He expects high level of academic integrity during the quizzes and exams.
 - for this, plagiarism against submitted instruments will be checked and if plagiarism is found, that case will be forwarded to disciplinary committee.
- On-time submission of graded instruments will be tremendously appreciated.
 - for this, late submissions due to any sort of the reasons will be penalized with 30% marks.
- Free riding in the group assignments and group project are strongly discouraged.
 - for this, submission of peer evaluation against each group instrument will be mandatory.
- Constructive discussion for the wide benefit of the whole class will be highly encouraged during the online sessions.
 - for this, 50% portion of the CP will be dedicated to in class discussion so that all the students continuously stay engaged.